

The Royal Society of St George

Patron: H.M. The Queen

Norwich Trafalgar Branch

Patron: The Lord Lieutenant of Norfolk

The objects as laid down in Royal Charter are:

- (i) To foster the love of England and the Commonwealth by spreading the knowledge of English history, traditions and ideals.
- (ii) To keep fresh the memory of those in all walks of life, who have served England or the Commonwealth in the past, in order to inspire leadership in the future.
- (iii) To combat all activities likely to undermine the strength of England or the Commonwealth.
- (iv) To further English interests everywhere to ensure that St George's Day is properly celebrated and to provide focal points the world over where English men and women may gather together.
